Request for information on the Register to be restricted from public access

The Charities Commission may restrict public access to information on the Charities Register if it believes it is in the interest of the public to do so. If you would like any of the information in your application restricted from public access, please indicate below and include a written request explaining your reasons with this application. The Commission will consider your request and let you know its decision in writing.

Yes, we wish to submit a written request to restrict information from public access.

Please note:

- The Charities Commission may, under section 25 of the Charities Act 2005, prevent or restrict public access to information or documents if it considers it to be in the public interest to do so. Please note that this information or these documents will still be subject to requests under the Official Information Act 1982 that will be considered by the Charities Commission on a case-by-case basis.
- All requests to prevent or restrict public access to information or documents will be evaluated and you will be advised of the Charities Commission's decision.

Privacy and information use

The information that you have provided in this form will be held and used by the Charities Commission to determine your eligibility for registration and to carry out its functions under the Charities Act 2005.

The Charities Act 2005 authorises the supply of information or documents held on the Register of charitable entities to the Inland Revenue Department to assist in the carrying out of powers and functions under any of the Inland Revenue Acts.

The Statistics Act 1975 allows for the information, once collected, to be used for statistical purposes by Statistics New Zealand. Information supplied to Statistics New Zealand will be used for statistical purposes only and will be arranged to prevent particulars published about any person from being identifiable (except by the person who supplied the information), unless the person has agreed or publication identifying the person is unavoidable.

The Privacy Act 1993 provides that you may access or correct personal information about you held by the Charities Commission. If you wish to access or correct your personal information, please contact the Charities Commission, PO Box 8072, Wellington, 6143.
